Resident of the Month: Howie Heller

Born in Minneapolis on St. Patrick's Day in 1938, Howie is a lifelong Shakopee resident. February marked 66 years of marriage to his wife, Jan with their union turning into a family of 6 children, 15 grandchildren and 4 great-grandchildren.

His career consisted of roles working at Rahr Malting and as a sales representative for Fanny Farmer Candy to serving as Deputy Clerk of Court at the Shakopee Courthouse and then ultimately retiring from the Shakopee Public Works Department in 1999. While his retirement days were defined by days on the golf course, he now spends his time sitting out in the sun whenever he can, playing cards and visiting with his family. Being a sports lover, he enjoys watching most sports, especially baseball, even more so when a grandson is pitching.

Fun fact: He scored the winning run for the Shakopee Indians in the championship game of the 1959 Minnesota State Amateur Baseball tournament held in St. Cloud.
