Resident of the Month: Mike Kabrud

Mike Kabrud was born on July 17th 1947 to Luverne Kabrud and Rita Savage. He was the youngest of four boys. He grew up primarily in Minneapolis, MN. Later in life he lived in various cities in Minnesota and California. He had a knack for adventure and his hobbies included hunting, fishing, woodworking, and fixing cars. His previous employment included construction work (i.e., building garages and roofing). He was a janitor for the Stillwater Oklahoma high school for 20 years before retiring in 2023. He loved making connections with everyone at the school.

His first marriage was to Karen Kabrud and they had one boy together (Shawn Kabrud), who gave him three grandchildren (Mike, Matt, and Marcus) with three great grandchildren (Brooke, Jackson, and Lottie). His second marriage was to Barb Kabrud and they had two children (Cory and Lindsey) with three great grandchildren (Iris, Zoe, and Zander) who come to visit him frequently. Prior to living at Friendship Manor, he lived with Lindsey and her family for 2 years.

Family is the most important thing to him. He loves his great grandchildren and looks forward to their visits. He enjoys all children and will be the first to wave or talk to any child or baby. He also enjoys dog visits, watching tv (westerns), old cars, reminiscing about the past, and at times he likes to joke around and banter with people. He is a stubborn Norwegian who once won a Lutefisk eating contest.

The month of October is best known for Halloween, crisp autumn weather and colorful falling leaves.

Seasonal and Cultural Highlights

- Halloween: Celebrated on October 31st, featuring costumes, jack-o'-lanterns, and trick-or-treating.
- Fall Foliage: Trees change to vibrant shades of orange, red, and yellow across the Northern Hemisphere.
- Oktoberfest: The famous Bavarian beer and culture festival held in Germany.
- Harvest Season: A time for pumpkin patches, apple picking, and corn mazes.

Why is October so important?

October is important as a major seasonal, cultural, and psychological turning point that marks the peak of autumn, preparation for winter, and a popular period for personal reflection.

What does the name October mean?

The name October means "eighth month," coming from the Latin word octo, which means "eight".

Reminder to Families

A reminder to families that the season is changing, it's time to take the summer clothing out of the residents closets and bring in their winter clothing. The reason we say this, is the closets are not big enough for all their clothing.

Please make sure if you bring in clothing, blankets, etc. it needs to go to the laundry room before the resident wears it. IT NEEDS TO BE MARKED. Ask the nurse to give to laundry by the sewing area, with a note as to which resident it is for. Thank You!
